

Cottonseed and Feed Association

April 30, 2010

Dear Members,

The four-diamond Omni Interlocken Resort, nestled against the backdrop of the Rocky Mountains near Denver (Broomfield), Colorado, will serve as the site of the 31st Annual Convention of the Cottonseed and Feed Association, Inc., July 15-18, 2010.

It has been a successful CFA tradition to ask our members for contributions to cover our convention expenses. This year we are providing sponsorship opportunities of $100, $250, $500, and $1,000. Sponsors will be recognized by the association throughout the convention. There is no question that the generosity of our CFA members and friends is a key ingredient in making our annual convention an event that we all look forward to every summer.

It is my hope that your company will help continue with this tradition. Please make your checks payable to Cottonseed and Feed Association, and mail no later than June 15, 2010, to the address below. If you wish to bring a prize to the convention individually, please let us know in advance so that we may acknowledge your firm in our program.
